

T. Soong Quits His Party

Resigns From Nationalists as Invasion of Formosa Looms

By the Associated Press
Rather than go to Formosa, threatened with Communist invasion, T. V. Soong, millionaire brother of Madame Chiang Kai-shek has resigned from Nationalist China's ruling party.

The central executive committee of the party announced this today at Taipei, Formosa, as rumors spread the Red Chinese timetable calls for invasion in early July.

Official Nationalist dispatches said a heavy movement of Communist troops from central and south China toward embarkation points on the east coast has been reported by their mainland intelligence.

As Formosa was battered down against expected Red air raids, the Kuomintang (the ruling party) said Soong, a former foreign minister, chose to resign rather than join his sister and Chiang Kai-shek, who have pledged themselves to die in defending their last stronghold.

Fortune in World Banks
Soong left China when the Red forces threatened Nanking and the Nationalist government fled to Canton late in 1948. He said he was ill and needed medical attention. So far as is known he ignored frantic requests from the Nationalists for financial assistance. His huge fortune is deposited widely in world banks. Soong was last reported in New York with his brother-in-law, H. H. King, banker.

Thus, as Nationalist China faces its blackest hour, the Soong family, which has so long dominated it, is widely separated—with the former foreign minister taking refuge in the western world. Madame Chiang standing beside her husband on Formosa, and her sister, Madame Sun Yat-Sen, widow of the founder of the republic, in the camp of the Communists in Peiping.

Other highlights in world news: JAPAN—The Japanese government cracked down further on Communist leaders. Police pressed a drive in Osaka against party members and sympathizers. In Tokyo, police raided two Communist party offices. They said they found copies of a petition to General MacArthur demanding a quick total peace withdrawal of occupation forces and the release of eight Japanese convicted of beating five American soldiers during a Memorial Day Communist rally. Police embarked on a nationwide search for leaders responsible for distributing similar anti-occupation pamphlets. The Nippon Times forecast "a wave of arrests of agitators."

CZECHOSLOVAKIA—Thirteen Czechs charged with spying for western powers were convicted of high treason and sentenced by a three-man state court in Prague. Four defendants, including a Nippon Times forecast "a wave of arrests of agitators."

Charge Gold of Atom Spying

He And Others Are Accused in A Conspiracy

WASHINGTON, June 9—(AP)—A Brooklyn grand jury today indicted Harry Gold, Philadelphia chemist, and two unidentified persons on charges of atom spying against the United States.

The indictment was announced here by the Justice Department. In addition to Gold, the indictment named "John Doe, alias 'John' and 'Richard' Doe, alias 'Sam,'" and asserted that "the true and correct names" of these persons were unknown to the jurors.

Gold was arrested at Philadelphia last May 23. The espionage information filed against him at the time of his arrest mentioned also a "John Doe" described as an agent for the Russian government.

This "John Doe" was alleged to have received from Gold atomic secrets which had been passed to Gold by Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist who has since been sent to prison in Great Britain.

By naming "Richard Roe," the indictment introduced another mysterious figure into the alleged wartime traffic in secret data. There was no indication here as to who "Richard Roe, alias Sam" might be.

P. J. Neff And Rail Officials On Inspection

Conditions Are 'Generally Good' He Declares

P. J. Neff, chief executive officer of the Missouri Pacific Lines, and staff officers were in Sedalia today on an inspection tour of the railroad's property.

They arrived at the Missouri Pacific station at 4:00 o'clock this morning on Train No. 20 and their four office cars were set out at the depot. Just prior to leaving the office cars to inspect the Missouri Pacific shops, the group was met by Guy Bailey, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific Division Freight agent. Mayor Herb Stader, John Zander, secretary of Chamber of Commerce, and various other officials from the shops and depot.

Visit To Gas Plant

After touring the shops, the group went to the Pittsburgh Corning Glass Plant at 11:00 o'clock to tour it. The officials had lunch in the office cars at the depot and afterward inspected the construction work of the depot. The officials left on the second section of the Missouri River Eagle at 2:10 o'clock this afternoon, and were scheduled to arrive in St. Louis this evening at 5:30 o'clock, this being the completion of an inspection tour since Monday conducted by the officials.

On Monday, Mr. Neff and staff were in Nebraska inspecting the damage by private automobile, of the condition around the right-of-way from floods in Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Neff also had a conference with the Governor of that state, Gov. Val Peterson. The group were in Omaha, Neb., on Tuesday, Kansas City on Wednesday, and came to Sedalia today from Wichita, Kas. Mr. Neff and staff were in Sedalia inspecting the local shops about six or eight months ago.

Dr. Lamy and Dr. Beckmeyer went to the garage and finding it locked forced open a door. They found Mr. Waddell slumped over in the back seat of his automobile. A hose had been attached from the exhaust pipe into the car and the motor started. He had shot himself in the lower part of his left chest with a .38 caliber bullet.

A note found in the home, written by Mr. Waddell indicated he had awakened about 2:00 o'clock. Dr. Stauffacher said he had been dead approximately four or five hours before the body was found.

Be No Inquest
Dr. Stauffacher was notified, and after viewing the body and talking with Dr. Beckmeyer and members of the family, said an inquest was not necessary. The body was then taken to the McLaughlin funeral chapel.

Mr. Waddell was the son of the late John Waddell and Rosalie Saugrain Waddell. His grandfather was the late Dr. Pierre Saugrain, noted early day physician-surgeon of St. Louis.

Surviving him is his widow, Lucille Brown Waddell, and one daughter, Joan, who is Mrs. J. W. Barnes, of Chicago. Also surviving is a brother, J. Frost Waddell, 917 South Grand avenue, sisters, Mrs. J. A. Lamy, 400 Dal-Whi-Mo Court, Mrs. R. M. Garrett, Yonkers, N. Y., and Miss Rose Waddell, formerly of Sedalia, now residing in St. Louis.

Lamy's factory will close Monday morning so the employees may attend the funeral services at 9:00 a.m. at Sacred Heart church.

Boy Bitten By Skunk Having Rabies

MARSHALL, Mo., June 9—(AP)—A two-year old farm boy was bitten yesterday by a skunk, which was found to have rabies.

The boy, Donnie Admire, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Admire who live southeast of here, was given anti-rabies treatment by a physician.

The skunk was killed by the father and examination of it at laboratories at the University of Missouri proved that it had rabies.

The baby will receive anti-rabies serum daily for two weeks.

Bishop Welles Confirms Class

The Right Reverend Edward R. Welles, D. D., S. T. D., Episcopal Bishop of West Missouri conferred the sacrament of Holy Confirmation through the laying on of hands Thursday night to a mixed class of adults and children at the Calvary Episcopal church.

The confirmation class was presented to the Bishop by Father Warren L. Bolkin, rector of Calvary church, in the Episcopal service.

After the confirmation of the members of the class Bishop Welles made an address to the large crowd in the church.

In his talk he illustrated the three phases of Christ life through the book or his life on earth, through his saints, and finally through the people of today. He brought out that today he still lives through the people who still try to follow the example of his life on earth and urged the people to follow Christ's example in his life on earth.

After the service a reception was held in the Parish hall, near the church, where the people of the parish met the Bishop and Mrs. Welles for the first time, as this was his first visit here since his consecration in April.

Prior to the service the Bishop and Mrs. Welles, Father and Mrs. Bolkin, and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Scruton were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Trader at Meadowood farm.

Banquet This Evening For DeMolays

John Glazier to Give Address at Epworth Church

The highlight of today's meeting of the state Order of DeMolays will be the 6:30 p.m. banquet, to be held at the Epworth Methodist church, Broadway and Engineer avenue, followed later at 9:00 p.m. with a Grand Ball in Convention hall, Liberty park, with music by LeRoy Hackman's band of Jefferson City.

The second day of the three-day conference for DeMolays from all over the state, opened this morning at 10:00 a.m. at the Masonic Temple, at which time various committees held a conference.

Between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., a swimming party for the young men was held at the new Liberty park swimming pool. The group re-assembled at 1:30 p.m., at which time all committees made their reports. The Confederal of Knighthood Degree was to have been held by the Hugawill Priory this afternoon, but the degree was unable to attend. This degree will take place at a later date this summer. L. Fred Stem, director of membership, was a distinguished guest of the DeMolays today.

At the banquet this evening, E. W. Kettelson will be the toastmaster. The invocation will be given by the Rev. J. W. Watts, pastor of the First Sedalia Christian church. During the banquet, Charles and Darlene Vaughan, better known as the Vaughn sisters, will sing a few numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Morgan at the piano.

John Glazier Give Talk

Dr. F. O. Murphy will be introduced, and in turn will present the guest speaker, John Glazier, of Kansas City who is the Past Grand Master of Grand Council of Order of DeMolay in Kansas City, and at the present time is director of extension for all DeMolay activities in the world. He is a 33 degree honorary member of the Scottish Rite. The banquet will be attended by DeMolay members, advisors, Sedalia and out-of-town distinguished guests.

Saturday morning will climax the three-day meeting in Sedalia, by holding the annual election of officers. The conference will come to a close following a noon dinner at the Masonic Temple, which will be served by Sedalia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Some Gain For Jefferson City

JEFFERSON CITY, June 9—(AP)—A preliminary census report for Missouri's capital city shows a total population of 24,990, up only 722 from the 1940 figure.

The preliminary report for Cole county showed a total of 25,193, just 251 higher than ten years ago.

The figures include better than 3,000 inmates at Missouri penitentiary here, but do not include any state employees who retain their official residence in their home counties. A number commute from Monticair, Boone, Callaway, Miller and other nearby counties. In announcing the preliminary totals, the census supervisor said final tabulations might show slight changes up or down.

Degrees to President and Two Other Missourians

President Harry S. Truman

Judge George H. Moore

Henry Percy Rusk

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—Four eminent Missourians, including the President of the United States, were awarded honorary degrees by the University of Missouri at its one hundred eighth annual commencement exercises here this morning. President Harry S. Truman delivered the commencement address.

University president Frederick A. Middlebush also conferred degrees on 1,900 students, the largest graduating class in the history of the university and President Truman conferred commissions in the U. S. armed services on members of the class who have also completed requirements in training in the ROTC units of the three branches of service at the university.

In addition to President Truman, two other prominent native Missourians received honorary degrees of Illinois, who has already received two degrees from the University of Missouri was honored with a Doctor of Science degree. These three were: George Herbert Moore, judge of the U. S. district court, eastern district of Missouri; Henning Webb Prentiss, Jr., president of the Armstrong Cork company and Henry Percy Rusk, dean of the college of agriculture of the University of Illinois.

President at the Throttle of a Diesel on Trip to Columbia

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—(AP)—President Truman slid into the easy state of his native Missouri as he arrived here today for the first of two foreign policy speeches.

He had a good time strolling around the streets of St. Louis before 6 a.m., an hour before he boarded a special Wabash train for the trip to the University of Missouri for his 10:15 a.m. talk. He boasted of having helped pilot the train after a brief visit to the engineers' cab.

"You noticed the difference when I had my hand on the throttle he quipped as he headed back for his private car.

It wasn't his own bullet-proof campaign car, but a swanky one furnished him by the railroad. He had breakfast with his secretary, Miss Mary Jane Truman of Grandview, Federal District Judge Roy Hovater, Tom Vansant, Fulton, Mo., banker, and members of his staff.

He told his breakfast companions about his early morning stroll in the vicinity of St. Louis Jefferson hotel where he spent last night.

Sailor In Argument
It seems he ran into a sailor having a vigorous argument with a cab driver.

The sailor turned, then stated:

in open-mouthed amazement when he saw that the grinning man tapping him on the shoulder was the president of the United States.

Mr. Truman wanted to know about the sailor's battle stars. The flustered gob stammered out the information the best he could. And the president resumed his stroll.

The sailor later was identified as Seaman William Hall, 25, Caledonia, Mo.

"He asked me where I got all the ribbons," Hall said. "Then he wished me luck. What a guy!"

As he entered the engine cab, he shook hands with engineer Samuel R. Cannon and fireman Charles H. Cox, both of Moberly. After taking a look at the speed governor of the diesel engine, he took a seat between the engineer and fireman.

He inquired about a gauge, and was told it was a steam gauge having to do with heat on the train.

"This is a pretty nice job for the engineman," he observed later.

As he left he saluted the two men and quipped, "I wonder if I could get one of those jobs."

President Poses With Allison

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—(AP)—President Truman gave a warm greeting today to his candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. senate. He willingly posed shaking hands with Emory Allison as the President and Allison boarded his train for the trip to St. Louis.

Degrees to Three in Morris Family

Bachelor of science degrees were presented to two sons and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Morris (back row), Columbia, at the University commencement today. Degrees were awarded to William (left), in agriculture; Marilyn Ann, in education; and J. B. in mechanical engineering. War service delayed the start of university work for the two brothers, enabling their younger sister to graduate with them. All are graduates of Smith-Cotton high school, Sedalia. Their father is state extension agent, University of Missouri Extension Service. He was county extension agent at Trenton from 1925 to 1935 and at Sedalia from 1935 to 1947. Mr. Morris received a B. S. in agriculture from the university in 1921.

Keep On Spending Abroad

Insistence From President in Address at M. U. Commencement

By Ernest B. Vaccaro
COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—(AP)—President Truman warned today that the United States must continue spending abroad to enable its foreign partners to resist "internal subversion or external attack" by Russia.

He spoke from an improvised stand—covered by yellow canopy—to a rain-drenched crowd in the stands of the University of Missouri football stadium.

In his stadium speech he said that it would be "disastrous" to abandon aid to western Europe at a time "when every one of the Marshall plan countries is better able to resist Communism and to work for peace than at any time since the war ended."

The cap-and-gown President spoke before being awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree and a Phi Beta Kappa key.

Rain began falling just as the President took his place in the stand, erected in the middle of the football field. Sergeant J. F. Jenkins of the state highway patrol estimated the attendance at the commencement exercises at between 15,000 and 20,000 persons.

Heads covered by umbrellas, newspapers and commencement programs the crowd, for the most part, remained in the seats throughout the President's address, despite the steadily increasing rain, the rumble of thunder and the flashes of lightning.

But they broke for cover when he concluded.

Valiantly carrying on, University president Frederick A. Middlebush cut short the program for the graduating class, awarding mass degrees.

With the stands virtually empty, the awarding of honorary degrees continued within the covered stands.

Mr. Truman got his later in the lobby of Jesse hall.

He told a crowd there: "I have only one ambition—to attain peace in the world—a lasting peace for the welfare of the whole world and all the people in the world."

He said it was one of a series of speeches on foreign policy and added:

"We have but one foreign policy—support of the United Nations."

Mr. Truman did not mention Russia by name, but there was no doubt of his meaning when he declared that in a world "full of dangers" the United States must continue its contributions to free nations lest "the Communists move in."

Ceasing Aid Be 'Disastrous'
The President declared today that post-Marshall plan abandonment of aid to western Europe would be disastrous to peace.

In a world "full of dangers," he declared, the United States must continue its contributions to free nations lest "the Communists move in."

He made it clear that he is convinced "our vital national interest in a healthy world economy" will not end when Marshall plan aid stops in 1952.

"You hear a lot of talk these days to the effect that the world is full of dangers, and that our civilization is heading straight for disaster," the President asserted.

"Of course the world is full of dangers—the world has always been full of dangers, for people in every country, and at every period of history."

But in spite of these dangers, he said, "our civilization need not wind up in disaster."

"It can go on to greater heights. Those who are frightened and dismayed do not have faith that men will use scientific advances for good ends. They see only the dangers in the world—not the opportunities."

Mr. Truman's speech was part of a program including his being awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree and a membership key in Phi Beta Kappa, the scholarship society.

Back For Reunion
He was to return to St. Louis this afternoon for a reunion of the 35th Division in which he served in the First World War.

The President's speech added up to an implied warning to Russia that the emotions stirred up in this country by foreign policy debates do not indicate weakness in a democracy. He explained:

"The democratic process is not always easy. It involves us in great public debates. Emotions are aroused and feelings run high. But when the shouting is ended"

"HIGH" OFFICIALS LEND A HAND—These lucky German youngsters almost got into the "wild blue yonder" before they took their helicopter spin as guests of the U. S. CALL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA PACT—Black areas on map show the seven nations to which the Philippine government has issued a call for a permanent security pact against aggression. The proposal was made by Philippine Foreign Secretary Carlos P. Romulo to delegates of the seven countries at a conference in the summer capital at Baguio. Although Romulo didn't describe it as an anti-Communist pact, all the countries are threatened by Communist aggression and the delegates made no mistake of his intent.

HIS CHOICE—IKE—John Orr Young, New York advertising man who helped spark the 1940 presidential boom for Wendell Willkie, points to his choice for the presidency in 1952—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Young has begun a "draft Eisenhower" boom by inserting ads in local papers calling for small contributions from individuals who want Ike for president.

Hoover Says Reds Going Underground

Party Members are Being Transferred; Using Secret Codes

WASHINGTON, June 9—(AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has told Congress that Communists have begun to go underground and are using secret codes since the conviction of 11 Red party leaders in New York.

Hoover's statement, made to a Senate appropriations subcommittee several weeks ago, was made public today.

Hoover told senators that Communists have cut their public meetings to a minimum, set up a code system for correspondence and now employ couriers widely.

Have Secret Supplies
"Secret printing facilities and supplies have been secreted for future underground operations," the FBI chief testified. "Transfers of party members from one district to another are now controlled through the use of an elaborate identification system."

Hoover, seeking additional funds for FBI operations, told senators that the Communists have started a campaign to worm their way into communications and heavy industries. He said this has been particularly true in the steel, heavy machinery, mining, electrical, maritime and transportation industries.

Penetrate Legal Profession
He said there has been an "amazing" penetration into the legal profession, among others.

Hoover said there are 54,174 known Communist party members in the United States, including 25,000 in New York.

"There is a larger volume of subversive activities than existed in any period during the last World War," he testified. "Communism today is at a greater height in the United States than either Nazism or Fascism was during the last World War."

$59,000,000 for Military Building

WASHINGTON, June 9—(AP)—Agreement on a $59,000,000 military construction program was reached Thursday by a Senate-House conference committee.

It includes $189,241,000 in projects pumped into it after it passed the Senate, some stamped "highest priority" by the defense department.

Meantime the Senate armed services committee cleared a bill proposing a three-year plan for building armories for the National Guard and other reserves of all three services.

This bill calls for the federal government to set up $135,000,000 to share with states or communities in costs. It would require that the services use the armories jointly.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee said that all Army, Navy and Air

MAY RETURN TO JAPAN
A peace treaty may return to Japan some of her prewar island possessions. These are the northernmost of the Ryukyu chain, including the large islands of Tanaka and Yaku. At the Japanese surrender, the Allies limited Japan's sovereignty to the four main islands of Honshu, Hokkaido, Kyushu and Shikoku and "such minor islands as we determine."

Force public works needed during the next two years should be covered by the military construction bill unless an emergency arises. Senate conferees agreed to action of the House committee in dropping from the bill $105,000,000 for family military housing within the United States. The Senate had okayed this, but the House took it out on the theory that the need would be met through a law, called the Wherry act, which offers government insurance aids to erect rental projects.

Bomber Loses Suitcase
Mirror and Picture Safe

MOBILE, Ala., June 9—(AP)—Claude A. Smith, gazing skyward at a passing bomber, saw a large object drop from the ship.

The object hit ker-plop near his house. But no explosion.

It turned out to be a suitcase belonging to Pfc. Homer Ruiz, a Brookley Air Force Base soldier returning to his base here from Memphis, Tenn.

The bomb bay door had accidentally opened and the bag slipped out. A mirror and picture inside were undamaged.

A Well Known Spectacular Fire At Plainville, Kas

Missouri Newsman Dies

Greatest Achievement Was Coverage of the Titanic Disaster

ST. LOUIS, June 9—(AP)—Carlos F. Hurd, 73, a member of the Post-Dispatch news staff for 50 years, died at his home Thursday of cancer.

Passenger On Carpathia

During his long journalistic career, Hurd covered many outstanding news events. His greatest achievement came when he was a passenger aboard the Carpathia, the ship which picked up many survivors of the Titanic disaster in the North Atlantic in 1912.

Hurd obtained interviews from many of the rescued, including the Titanic's pilot when it struck.

PLAINVILLE, Kas., June 9—(AP)—Flames of unknown origin destroyed the Bowersock Mills an iceberg. Hurd's graphic story of 5000 words supplied newspapers with the first details of the disaster when the Carpathia reached New York.

Hurd was a native of Cherokee, La., and started his newspaper career as a reporter for the Springfield, Mo., Leader. He joined the Post-Dispatch staff in 1900.

Supplied "Weatherbird"
For years Hurd supplied the daily "weatherbird" phrase of topical comment which appears on the front page of the Post-Dispatch. He was an authority on St. Louis history and wrote a number of historical and biographical works.

He is survived by his wife, Rachel; a son, Clement R. Hurd; and two daughters, Miss Frances Hurd and Mrs. Fred A. Eppenber.

and Power company wheat elevator here today in a spectacular fire that threatened to engulf the entire business section of his town of 2,000.

Damage was estimated by Manager Frank Elliott at $189,000 including 72,872 bushels of wheat which were destroyed.

The elevator is owned by a milling concern of Lawrence, Kas.

Of the wheat destroyed, a total of 70,323 bushels belonged to the Commodity Credit Corporation. Capacity of the tin-constructed mill was 135,000 bushels.

The fire was discovered at 7:30 o'clock this morning and the flames were not extinguished until late this afternoon.

A steady stream of water was poured on a neighboring building owned by the Kansas Light and

Propose Draft Be Extended

Would be in Effect For Three Years Instead of Two Year Period

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—A three-year extension of the peacetime draft act was recommended to the Senate today by its Armed Services committee.

The present draft act is due to expire June 24.

The Senate bill would continue the President's power to order actual inductions of youths between 18 and 26 years if he found that necessary.

It also includes an amendment by Senator Russell (D-Ga.) to require racial segregation in any of the armed services if this is requested in writing by any person drafted.

Under direction of President Truman, all of the armed services—Army, Navy and Air Force—have been gradually eliminating segregation of whites and Negroes.

For Separate Units
The Russell amendment apparently would require separate racial units for draftees who requested it.

The Senate bill differs widely from one previously passed by the House and on which Senate hearings were held.

The House bill extended the present act for only two years instead of three asked by the administration. It also gives Congress control over actual inductions. Men could not be drafted until the lawmakers declared a national emergency or found that inductions were needed to meet manpower needs by concurrent resolution.

Spectacular Fire At Plainville, Kas

PLAINVILLE, Kas., June 8—(AP)—Flames of unknown origin destroyed the Bowersock Mills and Power company wheat elevator here today in a spectacular fire that threatened to engulf the entire business section of its town of 2,000.

Damage was estimated by Manager Frank Ellett at $189,000, including 72,872 bushels of wheat which were destroyed.

The elevator is owned by a milling concern of Lawrence, Kas.

Of the wheat destroyed, a total of 70,323 bushels belonged to the Commodity Credit Corporation. Capacity of the tin-constructed mill was 135,000 bushels.

The fire was discovered at 7:30 o'clock this morning and the flames were not extinguished until late this afternoon.

A steady stream of water was poured on a neighboring building owned by the Kansas Light and Telephone company to keep it from being damaged by flames. The next-door Plainville Farm and Implement company moved its tractors and combines to safer places.

A house owned by Lou Dougherty caught fire during the morning. Part of the roof was burned before the blaze was put out.

Lilienthal Urges Freeing of Atom

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal urged America today to free the atom from what he called a "Soviet-type" government monopoly.

The former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission said this monopoly is stifling development of the atom for peaceful purposes. He said private industry should be given a chance to pioneer on this new frontier of undreamed of possibilities.

That would mean changing the atomic energy law. Lilienthal is for that. He also wants "an end to the absurd cloak-and-dagger air of mystery that still hangs over this monopoly."

In the first of a series of articles in Collier's magazine, he complained that here is a crowning irony:

"As to the new era of the atom, we have not only turned our back on the essentials of the industrial system that has given us our military security, we have done it in the name of military security! In the midst of a desperate competition with the Russian system, we have adopted a method that more nearly resembles the Russian system than it does our own."

The Weather

Mostly cloudy, continued warm with showers and occasional thunderstorms Friday and Friday night; Saturday partly cloudy and warm.

Four Linemen Electrocuted

PEARSON, Ga., June 8—(AP)—Four linemen were electrocuted near here today when a power line broke in a pouring rain and shot 2,000 volts of electricity into soggy ground where the men were working.

Two linemen standing outside the charged area escaped injury. The victims were identified by Georgia Power and Light Co. officials as O. A. Odum, C. M. Brunker, J. L. Liles, Jr., and C. L. Brown, all of Waycross, Ga.

Mayor Francis Corbett of Pearson said the men probably were killed instantly but that an ambulance rushed them to a Douglas, Ga., hospital where efforts were made to revive them.

Corbett said the men were working in a downpour putting up a power pole which struck and broke some overhead lines. The crew was relocating a high voltage line along a newly constructed section of a highway.

A Well Known Missouri Newsman Dies

Greatest Achievement Was Coverage of the Titanic Disaster

ST. LOUIS, June 8—(AP)—Carlos F. Hurd, 73, a member of the Post-Dispatch news staff for 50 years, died at his home today of cancer.

Passenger On Carpathia
During his long journalistic career, Hurd covered many outstanding news events. His greatest achievement came when he was a passenger aboard the Carpathia, the ship which picked up many survivors of the Titanic disaster in the North Atlantic in 1912.

Hurd obtained interviews from many of the rescued, including the Titanic's pilot when it struck an iceberg. Hurd's graphic story of 5,000 words supplied newspapers with the first details of the disaster when the Carpathia reached New York.

Hurd was a native of Cherokee, Ia., and started his newspaper career as a reporter for the Springfield, Mo., Leader. He joined the Post-Dispatch staff in 1900.

Supplied "Weatherbird"
For years Hurd supplied the daily "weatherbird" phrase of topical comment which appears on the front page of the Post-Dispatch. He was an authority on St. Louis history and wrote a number of historical and biographical works.

He is survived by his wife, Rachel; a son, Clement R. Hurd; and two daughters, Miss Frances Hurd and Mrs. Fred A. Eppenberger.

Release Witness On Habeas Corpus
KANSAS CITY, June 8—(AP)—Fred Wells, who refused to answer questions of the Jackson county grand jury, was released on a writ of habeas corpus today after he had been sentenced to serve 30 days in jail for contempt of court.

The action was taken by the Kansas City court of appeals. During the hearing Judge Samuel A. Dew was told by Wells that he had been "fooling around a little with policy" for the past 25 years.

Mrs. Antoinette Cammisano qualified for the $3,000 bond under which Wells was released. She is the wife of William Cammisano, one of two brothers reported by the federal grand jury to have operated several policy wheels in Kansas City.

Judge Dew set Monday for a hearing on the case.

The county grand jury which is investigating gambling and crime brought Wells before Circuit Judge Ray Cowan after he had refused to answer questions.

The bomb bay door had accidentally opened and the bag slipped out. A mirror and picture inside were undamaged.

ST. LOUIS, June 8—(AP)—Will Truman today tried to promote the candidacy of Emory W. Allison while he is in St. Louis.

Allison, a state senator from Rolla, was hand-picked by the President for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

Some Follow Reluctantly
Leading Missouri Democrats have fallen behind the President's choice, some of them reluctantly.

Allison will be on Mr. Truman's train on its return trip from Columbia tomorrow. But the passage list will not include Allison's chief Democratic rival, Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis.

Other guests on the train ride back to St. Louis will include Gov. Forest Smith; John J. Nangle, National Democratic committeeman from Missouri; John H. The President's brother, J. Vivian Truman, hoped to be able to join him at Columbia tomorrow.

Goes Into Seclusion
ST. LOUIS, June 8—(AP)—President Truman went into seclusion on his arrival at the Hotel Jefferson tonight, although a few of his old friends were expected to visit him in his suite.

On the hotel's ninth floor, the suite is decorated in a California motif with a western desert scene painted on the walls.

Before Mr. Truman's arrival, a direct telephone to the White House was installed to keep him in touch with world events.

A large crowd was on hand at the Jefferson when the President arrived. An estimated 500 persons greeted him when his plane landed at the St. Louis airport.

Search Is Pressed For Slayer
FAIRFIELD, Ill., June 8—(AP)—The last two active members of the Shelton clan were holed up in their fortified homes today while police pressed their search for Roy Shelton's killer.

Authorities had little to work on—a man's footprint and the jacket and pellet of a rifle shell.

No one at the inquest late yesterday threw any light on the shooting. None of the surviving Sheltons or their wives told of any enemies, grudges or other reasons to explain the shooting.

Drug Addict Forced Police To Kill Him

Told Father He Did Not Want to Commit Suicide, Left Note

HARRISON, Ark., June 8—(AP)—The father of a 15-year-old drug addict, who was killed in a hail of police gunfire here last night, said today his son apparently intended to die.

A World War II Veteran
The boy, named Robert, was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps during World War II.

He was found in a rooming house here last night, and police officers shot him to death.

Dr. Frakes said the note, which was found with the boy, said that "I don't want to commit suicide."

And last night, before the police arrived, Dr. Frakes said, "I don't want to commit suicide."

The attorney general's opinion, passed on by the county court, was that the boy was a drug addict.

After considering several court decisions, Welborn concluded: "Therefore, this department is of the opinion that the county court is the body charged with the management of the county's affairs under the county budget law, and that the county clerk as budget officer performs only ministerial duties in assembling the estimates to be required to be submitted to him and in entering the budget on record after its approval (by the court)."

The Pettis county judges asked Mr. Brown to write the Attorney General for an opinion as to the county clerk's authority to overrule the Pettis county judges in budget making, because the judges wanted the law clarified as to who had actual charge of the budget making.

The judges, Mr. Green and Mr. Brown had very little to say about the matter this morning.

John A. Schaller 77, was gored several times by the animal and thrown to the ground.

She swung the bar against the bull's head once, after which he escaped his grasp. In the confusion two more bodies were taken to a West Plains hospital.

Members of the family said the names of the dead and three-year old bull had been pronounced "tame" until he charged the next of kin here were notified.

Ruling Given On Authority

Intended to Clarify as to Budget Matters

JEFFERSON CITY, June 8—(AP)—A county clerk "has no authority" to countermand the orders of the county court in budget matters, Attorney General J. E. Taylor held today.

The opinion was written for William F. Brown, prosecuting attorney of Pettis county.

Mr. Brown was asking for the attorney general's opinion on the matter.

"Our county clerk assumes the position that he is the job authority in matters affecting the budget, and has called quietly or imperiously, countermanded the orders of the county court in respect to the payment of items provided in the budget."

James H. Green, a Republican clerk of the Pettis county court, Brown is a Democrat.

The attorney general's opinion, passed on by the county court, was that the boy was a drug addict.

After considering several court decisions, Welborn concluded: "Therefore, this department is of the opinion that the county court is the body charged with the management of the county's affairs under the county budget law, and that the county clerk as budget officer performs only ministerial duties in assembling the estimates to be required to be submitted to him and in entering the budget on record after its approval (by the court)."

The judges, Mr. Green and Mr. Brown had very little to say about the matter this morning.

Five Killed in a Scotland Train Fire
BEATTOCK, Scotland, June 8—(AP)—Fire broke out tonight on a speeding Birmingham-Glasgow Express train killing a man, two women and two children. A search was made to determine if there were any other victims.

Fanned by the speed of the train the flames swept through the first three coaches. These were ablaze when the train ground to a halt near this village, 60 miles south-east of Glasgow.

Lanarkshire fire brigade headquarters said all three of the cars that caught fire were "burned out."

Report Grand Jury Checking 1945 Amerasia

Amid Republican Charges Case Was Given 'White Wash'

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—A secret federal grand jury in New York was reported looking into the 1945 Amerasia case today amid new Republican charges of a "whitewash" on Capitol Hill.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) told newsmen:

"I have been reliably informed that a New York grand jury is looking into the Amerasia case."

Confirms Jury Report
In New York a high official source confirmed late today that a federal grand jury here is looking into the 1945 Amerasia case. He withheld his name.

Another congressional informant said the New York jury has already called many witnesses who have testified in the current probe of the Amerasia affair by a Senate investigating committee.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), head of the Senate GOP policy committee, joined the oh-raised cry of "whitewash" against the inquiry group headed by Chairman Tydings (D-Md.).

Taft told newsmen that in his opinion the Tydings committee has "not done the job" it was assigned to do by the Senate, but instead has "tended to whitewash the whole affair."

The Ohio lawmaker was commenting on broad general charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), who contends that the state department is infested with Communists and that the Amerasia episode is the key to a Red network in the government.

Six persons, including two state department officials, were arrested in June, 1945, after FBI agents raided the New York headquarters of Amerasia magazine and found hundreds of secret government documents there. Two of the defendants were fined; the other four cases were dropped.

Magazine No Longer Exists
The magazine, a publication devoted to Far East affairs, no longer exists.

Amerasia's editor, Philip Jaffe, was subpoenaed in New York this afternoon to appear at the closed-session of the Tydings group next Monday.

Jaffe was one of the six arrested by FBI agents on an original charge of conspiracy to violate the espionage laws. In court, he was allowed to plead guilty to the lesser charge of illegal possession of government documents and paid a $2,500 fine.

On Capitol Hill, the Tydings committee heard James K. Vardaman, former naval aide to President Truman, repeat his earlier emphatic denial to newsmen that he never pulled any wires to stall off the Amerasia arrests.

Brig. Gen. Julius Holmes, an assistant secretary of state in 1945, reportedly testified yesterday that to the best of his recollection, it was Vardaman who issued a go-slow order in the case.

Other Developments
In other developments today: 1. Attorney General McGrath turned down a request by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) for answers to a long series of questions on the Amerasia case on the ground that it would be "duplicating" matters already covered by the Tydings committee.

McGrath also cold-shouldered Knowland's proposal that FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover answer questions about the case before an informal session of the Senate.

2. Secret testimony that late James V. Forrestal probably advised the justice department to go slow on prosecuting the Amerasia affair was reported to have been given to the Tydings committee.

3. Reports persisted that President Truman would shortly announce the creation of a special panel to supplement part of the Tydings committee's inquiry.

Bishop Welles Confirms Class

The Right Reverend Edward R. Welles, D. D., S. T. D., Episcopal Bishop of West Missouri conferred the sacrament of Holy Confirmation through the laying on of hands Thursday night to a mixed class of adults and children at the Calvary Episcopal church.

The confirmation class was presented to the Bishop by Father Warren L. Botkin, rector of Calvary church, in the Episcopal service.

After the confirmation of the members of the class Bishop Welles made an address to the large crowd in the church.

In his talk he illustrated the three phases of Christ life through his saints, and finally through the people of today. He brought out that today he still lives through the people who still try to follow the example of his life on earth and urged the people to follow Christ's example in his life on earth.

After the service a reception was held in the Parish hall, behind the church, where the people of the parish met the Bishop and Mrs. Welles for the first time, as this was his first visit here since his consecration in April.

Prior to the service the Bishop and Mrs. Welles, Father and Mrs. Botkin, and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Scruton were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Trader at Meadowood farm.

The Bishop and Mrs. Welles left for Kansas City after the reception.

Perjury Charge Be Faced

Remington is Accused in True Bill by a Federal Jury in New York

NEW YORK, June 8—(AP)—William W. Remington, government economist, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on one perjury count for denying he ever was a member of the Communist party.

The indictment was presented to Federal Judge John C. Clancey.

It charged that when Remington was asked on May 25 whether he ever had been a member of the Communist party, he replied: "I never have been."

The grand jury charged that Remington's answer was "untrue in that the defendant had been a member of the Communist party."

Remington, in Washington issued a statement saying "I am innocent." He repeated he has never been a Communist, and expressed confidence that a jury would acquit him "as the President's loyalty review board did."

His attorney, Joseph Rauh, accused the Justice Department of "persecuting an innocent man." Rauh said in a statement "the indictment means the administration has decided that the way to fight McCarthyism is to give into it." That was a reference to charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the government is harboring Communists.

The 32-year-old Commerce department economist had been questioned once before by the grand jury. The loyalty review board had cleared him after he was suspended from his job and he was reinstated last October.

Elizabeth Bentley, who named Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers as Communists, charged in July, 1948, that she collected wartime secrets from Remington. He has consistently denied that he ever was a member of the Communist party.

The next month Remington was suspended from his $10,000 a year job in the Commerce department.

Suit Was Brought
When Miss Bentley repeated her charges on a television program Remington sued her and two co-defendants—the National Broadcasting company and General Foods corporation—for $100,000.

The suit was settled for a reported $10,000. Miss Bentley's attorney said she "voluntarily opposed" settlement of the suit.

Last October the loyalty review board cleared Remington of the disloyalty charge and he was reinstated in his job.

The special federal grand jury made an investigation of Remington last month. The same jury—looking into subversive activities—heard testimony from Remington last year concerning the accusations against him.

On May 16 Remington's divorced wife, Mrs. Ann Moos Remington of Alexandria, Va., spent nearly five hours with the jury. A few days later Miss Bentley testified before the jury for an hour and a half.

$59,000,000 for Military Building
WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—Agreement on a $59,000,000 military construction program was reached today by a Senate-House conference committee.

It includes $189,241,000 in projects pumped into it after it passed the Senate, some stamped "highest priority" by the defense department.

Meantime the Senate armed services committee cleared a bill proposing a three-year plan for building armories for the National Guard and other reserves of all three services.

This bill calls for the federal government to set up $335,000,000 to share with states or communities in costs. It would require that the services use the armories jointly.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee said that all Army, Navy and Air Force public works needed during the next two years should be covered by the military construction bill unless an emergency arises.

Senate conferees agreed to auction of the House committee in lopping from the bill $105,000,000 for family military housing within the United States. The Senate had okaved this, but the House took it out on the theory that the need would be met through a law, called the Wherry act, which obligates government insurance aids to erect rental projects.

Escapes Soon After Arrest

Joe R. Whitman Through Window Eluding Deputy

Joe R. Whitman, 30 years old, 906 South Osage avenue, who was charged with forgery Saturday afternoon in the Magistrate court by Prosecuting Attorney William F. Brown, escaped from Deputy Sheriff Lee Feaster, who on Whitman's request had taken him to his home to change clothes.

Whitman was arrested while he was at work at a produce company about 3:30 p.m., Saturday, on the forged check charge and this was attributed as the reason that he asked to be taken home to change his clothes.

Feaster accompanied him into the house and said that he would wait downstairs while Whitman went up to change his clothes. Later after Whitman did not show up Feaster went to the upstairs and found that Whitman had escaped through a back bedroom window, where he had fastened three bed sheets together with which to lower himself to the ground. It was not known whether he had made his way from the premises on foot or how.

After finding him gone, Feaster notified the authorities and an extensive search of the area around the neighborhood was made.

The highway patrol was notified of the escape and was given the following description of Whitman: Joe R. Whitman, 30 years old, wanted for passing a forged check in Pettis County, having black hair and wearing a light brown jacket, but having no hat at the time he took his unceremonious departure.

The check that Whitman is charged with forging was passed at the Green Pastures cafe recently. The check which was for five dollars, was reported stolen from a rooming house mail box and belonged to Miss Mary Ripley, who lived there.

Bill Hert, 706 West Fourth street, parked his car in front of the police station at Second street and Osage avenue, Friday afternoon. About 4:00 o'clock, an hour later, when he went to get his car it had disappeared.

An officer standing in the doorway noticed the car but did not know it was Mr. Hert's, but recalled seeing a well dressed young man walk down the street, get in, start the motor and drive off. A good description of the thief was obtained.

The state highway patrol was notified of the car theft and they in turn broadcast a pickup for the young man and car over the state radio net work. It hadn't been located late last night.

No Settlement Reached In KDRO Strike Situation

No settlement of the strike situation at radio station KDRO, Sedalia, has been reached. Union engineers remain out. The station continues to operate with other engineers at the controls.

Sometime after a short interruption in KDRO service the union men submitted a statement explaining their side of the controversy.

Milton J. Hinlein, owner of the radio station, in a letter addressed to the Sedalia Central Labor Union, says that statement needs clarification. His letter reads as follows:

"Sedalia Central Labor Union R C McVey, Jr., President 1111 West Seventh Street Sedalia, Missouri.

"Dear Sir: "Since discussing the strike at radio station KDRO with you several days ago, an article has appeared in the local press, from union sources, that I believe merits clarification. His letter reads as follows:

"The striking engineers at KDRO made numerous demands for changes under their contract, but witnesses of high calibre can testify that no demand was really debated at any length, other than the request for more pay.

"As previously stated KDRO paid the lowest member of this group a guaranteed wage of $60.00 for a forty-hour week, and seldom was the week's payment as low as $60.00. Our pay scale in their contract was more than Columbia, more than Jefferson City—in fact, more than any city in Missouri except the large city districts and excepting Hannibal, which has a 5,000 watt station. (KDRO has 250 watts.) Many stations in Missouri pay not only less, but considerably less than KDRO. Management has lists of engineers asking from fifty to sixty dollars and that amount is their asking price. Such lists are made up and sent out by engineering schools and contain many well-experienced men who have long since graduated and received their experience. These KDRO strikers came direct from school and have had no commercial radio experience elsewhere.

"The strike itself was called on forty minutes' notice, Friday, May 12th.

"The statement has been made by the strikers that management refuses to arbitrate. We respectfully submit the fact that the strikers placed this station in that position. Frantic efforts were made by management to avoid the walkout in those short forty minutes, by calling our National Association in Washington to have it intervene.

"The only demand we did not agree to arbitrate, was this wage demand which we know is presently more than adequate. After the walkout, many calls went back and forth to Washington. The idea was to have the strikers return while we arbitrated. Management needn't have been off the air more than six hours, but it took a heavy loss in an effort to get the engineers back on the job, so that local people could arbitrate. I deeply regret that the strikers did not see fit to agree with my suggestion that representatives of the local union be consulted in these negotiations. Finally, in despair, the strikers were given until one o'clock Sunday to return while we arbitrated Richard Doherty, labor-expert in Washington, worked diligently night and day to attempt to achieve this return. Finally, twelve o'clock Sunday arrived and passed with no recognition from the strikers. Inasmuch as the Federal Communications Commission rules and regulations require a licensed radio station to remain on the air for public interest, convenience and necessity, it was up to management to come to some decision. More telephone calls to Washington ensued. Mr. Doherty thought that with more time, he could achieve something. So the time was extended another day. Not to have them forfeit their demands, but only to have them return during arbitration.

"It was necessary that KDRO return to service. The public was clamoring for certain programs to which they had become accustomed and radio silence had to be broken. KDRO then signed an employment contract with two engineers and went back on the air. These new employees are experienced engineers who like Sedalia and would enjoy making their homes here. The longest service of any individual striker at KDRO is three years.

"Management submits to you that it has never sided with any group. In fact KDRO heretofore offers to Sedalia labor a weekly half-hour at no charge, to tell the labor story to the public. We would sincerely enjoy having such a program as a part of our public service.

"On your part, I am certain that you are in accord with me that Sedalia should not be known as a place where labor demands more than the normal market, or its growth would be hindered.

"May I ask in the name of fair play, that your thinking be tempered with justice in the light of the above facts and be assured that, if you and your group recognize and appreciate the position in which station KDRO has been placed by acts of certain individuals, I am and always will be ready to meet with you at any time.

Respectfully Yours, Milton J. Hinlein.

George T. Newkirk Services

George Thompson Newkirk, 81 years of age, died at his home in Tipton about 8:00 o'clock Friday night following a three-week illness. He was a patient at St. Mary's hospital in Jefferson City for the services.

Johnnie Miller, Deaf, Happy With Wife and Business

Johnnie Miller is leading a very busy, and happy life, despite the fact that illness as a child left him deaf and unable to carry on ordinary conversations with people. This has not prevented him, however from having a good business and the love and romance that comes with a normal life.

It was a little more than ten years ago that Johnnie came back to Sedalia, where he had lived as a little boy, to start in the upholstering business. It was at 307 South Engineer avenue that he first started up, just a couple of blocks from where he used to live on East Third street. He had learned upholstering at the School for the Deaf at Fulton, and that wasn't all that the school provided for Johnnie. It gave him the opportunity of meeting Temple Wells, also deaf, from Richmond, Mo., who was a student there, too.

And so it is with pride that today, Johnnie, Temple and Johnnie's mother are celebrating the tenth anniversary of a very successful business for which they are very grateful.

Wife Able Assistant

Temple may not have taken up upholstering there, we don't know, but after Johnnie's business began to flourish and he purchased his own shop at 613 South Engineer avenue, he decided it was time to propose to Temple. He did just that three years ago and they were married. Since that time Temple not only has become an excellent housekeeper and cook but she became, also, an expert at making slip covers.

Although neither talk by voice both do a good job at conversation on their hands and Johnnie's mother, Mrs. Wilma Clark, who also lives in an apartment where the store is located does the talking to the customers.

Richard Butler, for whom Johnnie worked after coming out of school, interested the state in Johnnie for a rehabilitation of handicapped persons which gave Johnnie an opportunity to become the real professional in upholstering that he is today.

The drivers were unable to reach an agreement at the scene so they were taken to the police station where both posted bond to appear in police court Monday morning.

The truck was owned by the Bennett Brothers Refrigeration company and sustained slight damages to the side.

The cab was damaged in the front to about the extent of $150.

and had been home one week, prior to his death.

Mr. Thompson was born near Tipton August 5, 1868, the son of Tobias and Mary Newkirk.

He was married to Miss Ida Ann Thomas on February 15, 1893 and they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1943.

During the active years of his farming he raised considerable stock and maintained a large farm.

Eight children and his widow survive. They are Norman Smith of Kansas City, Mrs. William Dick of Tipton, Mrs. Dudley Williams and Mrs. Orin Williams of Clarksburg, Mrs. Charles Lawson of Tipton, Norman, George and William Newkirk all of Tipton. Also surviving are twenty-three grandchildren and twenty-two great grandchildren. He is survived by one brother, Alva Newkirk of Tipton.

He was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and served on the board of directors of the M. F. A. cooperative.

The body was taken to the Richards' funeral home to remain until time for the services at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Methodist church. The Rev. J. L. Freeman, of Versailles, will officiate. He will be assisted by the Rev. O. E. Patton of Tipton.

Hoover Says Reds Going Underground

Party Members are Being Transferred; Using Secret Codes

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has told Congress that Communists have begun to go underground and are using secret codes since the conviction of 11 Red party leaders in New York.

Hoover's statement, made to a Senate appropriations subcommittee several weeks ago, was made public today.

Hoover told senators that Communists have cut their public meetings to a minimum, set up a code system for correspondence and now employ couriers widely.

Have Secret Supplies

"Secret printing facilities and supplies have been secreted for future underground operations," the FBI chief testified. "Transfers of party members from one district to another are now controlled through the use of an elaborate identification system."

Hoover, seeking additional funds for FBI operations, told senators that the Communists have started a campaign to worm their way into communications and heavy industries. He said this has been particularly true in the steel, heavy machinery, mining, electrical, maritime and transportation industries.

Penetrate Legal Profession

He said there has been an "amazing" penetration into the legal profession, among others.

Hoover said there are 54,174 known Communist party members in the United States, including 25,000 in New York.

"There is a larger volume of subversive activities than existed in any period during the last World War," he testified. "Communism today is at a greater height in the United States than either Nazism or Fascism was during the last World War."

Trend From The Farms to Cities

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., June 8.—(AP)—Census figures announced today show a definite movement from the farm to the city in ten Southeast Missouri counties over the past ten years.

Population of the tenth congressional district, a rich agricultural area including the Bootheel district and a portion of the Ozarks, is almost unchanged from 1940.

District Census Supervisor Lloyd Poe issued a provisional report showing total population of the ten counties as 316,572, a gain of 881 persons in ten years. Poe said a major revision of the count is unlikely, but possible.

Poplar Bluff, with a population of 15,058 compared to 11,163 in 1940, gained 34.9 per cent during the period, the largest gain for any of the district's cities.

Cape Girardeau's population was put at 21,480, compared to 19,426 in 1940, and Sikeston increased from 7,944 to 11,658.

Two communities, Caruthersville and Kennett, were listed as having the same number of residents—8,539 each.

Five of the counties gained in population, and five showed a decrease.

Almost all of the cities and smaller communities showed gains indicating a sizeable movement away from the farms during the ten years.

Wild First Inning But Cards Win

Three Braves Hurt; Starting Pitchers Kayoed in First

ST. LOUIS, June 8—(AP)—The patched-up St. Louis Cardinals scored eight runs in the first inning tonight and went on to beat the Boston Braves 18-6, moving them again into a first place National league tie with Brooklyn. Each team collected 17 hits.

Three Braves were injured and were forced to leave the game. Bob Elliott and Del Crandall pulled leg muscles and Pete Reiser suffered a groin injury.

Both starting pitchers, Harry Brecheen and Johnny Sain, were kayoed in a wild 43-minute first inning. The Braves poured four runs over on five hits in their half.

The Cards put the game on ice in their half with two out and no one on. There was a walk, three straight singles, another walk, two more singles and then a pair of doubles.

Boston used 19 men in the ball game.

With a comfortable lead, the Cardinals piled on three more tallies in the third and three more in the fourth.

In the fifth Boston came back with a run on Tommy Holmes' double and a single by Walker Cooper and scored another marker in the sixth.

But the Redbirds exploded again in their half of the sixth for four cinchers.

The story of the game was that the Cardinals hit when it counted. They stranded nine men compared with 12 for Boston.

Extent of the three Braves' injuries was not immediately learned.

McInerney's testimony was taken by the committee last month at a series of sessions behind closed doors.

An informant said McInerney first told the committee he seemed to recall that Forrestal had asked the Justice Department to delay the arrest of the six persons accused. They were taken into custody by the FBI in June 1945.

Later this informant said, McInerney testified that he had located a note from Justice department files which indicated that Forrestal did make such a request.

Truman to Campaign For James Roosevelt

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8—(AP)—President Truman probably will campaign against Gov. Earl Warren again—but this year in behalf of James Roosevelt, instead of for himself.

Roosevelt, son of the late FDR, won the Democratic nomination for governor in Tuesday's primary. He will run against Warren, Republican nominee asking a third term, in November.

Two years ago, Truman defeated Thomas E. Dewey and Warren, the Republican nominees.

Roosevelt had opposed Truman's nomination then, but the President seems to have forgiven.

Truman plans a western trip in the fall. He may visit California. If he does, Washington reported today, he will speak for Roosevelt and other party nominees, including Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Secret Jury at Work on Case

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—A congressional source said today a secret federal grand jury is looking into the 1945 Amerasia case in New York.

The source, who asked not to be named, said the grand jury has called many of the witnesses who have appeared before a Senate committee which is looking into the secret documents case.

The Senate group is centering its attention on the question of who delayed arrests in the affair.

It is reported to have received secret testimony that the late James V. Forrestal probably advised delaying them.

A source in close touch with the Senate inquiry into the secret documents case told a reporter the testimony came from Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney, chief of the Justice Department's criminal division. The source asked not to be named.

Forrestal was secretary of the navy at the time the case broke five years ago. Later he became secretary of defense. He was killed last year in a plunge from an upper floor of the naval medical center at nearby Bethesda, Md.

The information about the testimony regarding Forrestal came to light in the wake of still another authoritative report that the committee got testimony yesterday that former presidential aide James K. Vardaman may have tried to delay prosecution in the hotly-disputed Amerasia case.

Vardaman emphatically denied it to a reporter last night.

McInerney's testimony was taken by the committee last month at a series of sessions behind closed doors.

His other prepared address on foreign policy will be delivered Saturday at 2 p.m. (CST) in St. Louis at the dedication of Jefferson park.

All of his visit to Missouri, however, will not strike the solemn note of his two main speeches.

Even his own staff doesn't know how many "off-the-cuff" talks he will make in a round of social affairs in connection with the annual reunion of the 35th division in St. Louis before he returns to Washington early Saturday night.

Bright and early Saturday morning, he'll eat breakfast with members of Battery D, 129th Field Artillery, at his hotel. He commanded the battery in France in the first world war.

But there will be at least one extemporaneous talk tomorrow afternoon from the rear platform of a Wabash railroad special at Mexico, Mo.

Facing an action-packed schedule Friday and Saturday, the President planned to retire to his suite at the Jefferson hotel upon his arrival in St. Louis.

He'll have to get up early tomorrow to catch a special train at 7 a.m. for Columbia.

This same train—he will use a railroad official's private car—will take him back to Robertson, Mo., for Friday afternoon reception, the first of many 35th Division functions. That night, he will attend the grand reunion ball in St. Louis.

Veterans Assemble
ST. LOUIS, June 8—(AP)—Veterans of the Army's 35th Division poured into St. Louis today for an annual reunion that brings President Truman and several other national figures to the city.

The President, who served with the division as an artillery captain in World War I, was scheduled to arrive at the Municipal airport at 6 p.m. (CST).

The reunion, expected to draw 40,000 visitors to the city, won't open officially until tomorrow.

Four cabinet members and other high officials will be on hand.

Mr. Truman will go to Columbia tomorrow to speak at the University of Missouri commencement and will return late in the day for a reception at the Busch brewery family estate, Grant's farm.

Few Lines on 'Wacky' Chatter

WINCHESTER, Mass., June 8.—(AP)—Thabydvlabisxkja Pbrucjith abe nabew "AB" labangabause whabich abis drabivabing pabarcab crabazaby.

(Traxlktruo: This is a sample of the "new" language which is driving parents crazy.)

The teen-agers in this and several other Boston suburbs are indulging almost exclusive in the jabber-worky. And the grownups—teachers included—are going dabaffaby (daffy).

The kids rattle it off a mile a minute, even sing in the "language." The popular song, "Music, Music, Music," gets the treatment under the title "Mabusabic, Mabusabic, Mabusabic."

Here's how the "language" is talked: The syllable "AB" (pronounced "AHH") is inserted before each sounding vowel and before "Y" at the end of a word.

In each case the "AB" is accented. Teachers say some of the more proficient youngsters speak it as rapidly as they do English.

If your kids haven't taken it up, don't let 'em read this. They'll go for it and you'll go crabazaby.

Prayers of Nation Asked By President

Truman to be Given Degree At M. U. Friday

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

WASHINGTON, June 8—(AP)—President Truman leaves today for two foreign policy talks in Missouri, after asking the nation's prayers for the wisdom to "obtain peace in the world."

"Never in the history of the country has a servant of the people—and that is what the president is—needed your support and your prayers as does the present occupant of the White House," Mr. Truman told a church gathering here yesterday.

In solemn words, he related something of his feeling at this time of his country's "tremendous possibilities" in the cold war.

No man, he said, no matter "how great or how informed he may be" is capable of filling the presidency in the manner "in which it ought to be done." He called it "the greatest job in the world."

Standing in the pulpit of the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran church, he told delegates to the 91st National Annual Synod:

"All any man can do is to do the best he can in the interests of all the people of the United States."

Religious people, the President said, "are the greatest support a free government can have."

Worked at Desk
Mr. Truman takes off at 3 p.m. (Central Standard Time) in the "Independence" for St. Louis. He cancelled his usual Thursday news conference to work at his desk until departure time.

He speaks first at the University of Missouri at Columbia at 10:15 a.m. (CST) tomorrow at commencement exercises. He will be awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws and a Phi Beta Kappa key.

His other prepared address on foreign policy will be delivered Saturday at 2 p.m. (CST) in St. Louis at the dedication of Jefferson park.

All of his visit to Missouri, however, will not strike the solemn note of his two main speeches.

Even his own staff doesn't know how many "off-the-cuff" talks he will make in a round of social affairs in connection with the annual reunion of the 35th division in St. Louis before he returns to Washington early Saturday night.

Bright and early Saturday morning, he'll eat breakfast with members of Battery D, 129th Field Artillery, at his hotel. He commanded the battery in France in the first world war.

Praise Given Pettis Players

As people were leaving the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium, Thursday night, about 11:00 o'clock, following the successful production of "The Male Animal," presented by the Pettis Players, they had nothing but praise for the play.

One person was overheard saying, "Gee, I didn't know Sedalia had such talent." Another person was quoted as saying, "It was magnificent," while another playgoer said, "I didn't know the plays were that good. I missed 'The Man Who Came to Dinner,' but I'll try not to miss any other forthcoming plays."

The play, however, did not overflow the auditorium as when "The Man Who Came to Dinner" was presented last March. This was probably due to the late season.

The members of the Pettis Players are going ahead with plans for the production of several plays next fall and winter. During the summer months, committees will meet to decide plays for next fall.

Big Gain Made By Columbia

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—(AP)—Columbia's census court is 31,736, the census bureau office here has announced and Monday the city council is expected to pass an ordinance controlling sale of liquor by the drink. Sale by the drink is automatically legalized with announcement of population of 20,000 or more. The bars will be the first for the city in nearly half a century.

The city's population represents a gain of 13,337 over the 1940 count, with the 11,930 college and university students enumerated accounting for most of the gain. They were not included in the 1940 census.

The Boone county population went from 34,991 to 48,171 in the 10-year period. There again the students accounted for much of the gain. Dwelling units in the city increased from 5,991 to 8,080 and in the county from 11,030 to 13,479.

Other population totals for the county included Centralia, 2,476, as compared with 1,996 ten years ago, Harrisburg 117, Hartsburg 168, Sturgeon 545, Ashland 412, Huntsdale 50, McBaine 74, and Rocheport 374.

Soviets Move For More Prestige

By Richard Kasichke
BERLIN, June 9—(AP)—Russia has named civilians to replace four military rulers in East Germany in a move apparently designed to bolster the prestige of the Communist East German state.

The changes accelerated the switch from military to civilian control in the Russian zone and were accompanied by indications that new responsibilities were being delegated to the area's Communist-controlled German government.

Allied observers believed, however, the changes did not mean that Moscow was loosening its grip on East Germany but rather was pulling the Kremlin-created state closer toward early partnership as a full-fledged satellite in the Soviet bloc.

The best known of the four military men recalled to Moscow was Maj. Gen. Alexander G. Kotikov, 58-year-old former Red commandant of Berlin and representative of the Soviet control commission in Berlin since the establishment of the East German government last November.

Times Changed Since Lady Godiva's Ride

COVENTRY, Eng., June 9—(AP)—Times, Michael Quilty learned today, have changed since Lady Godiva rode around Coventry nine centuries ago clad only in her flowing hair.

Quilty, a 32-year-old laborer was fined two pounds ($5.60) for running through the streets Wednesday in his birthday suit. "This sort of thing is all right in Paradise," lectured Judge J. C. Gordon, "but you cannot do it in Coventry."

Quilty said it must have been the 88-degree heat.

Wife Saves Husband From Attacking Bull

MOODY, Mo., June 9—(AP)—A crowdbar welded by a 67-year old woman saved her husband from possible death when he was attacked by a bull.

John A. Schaller, 77, was gored several times by the animal and thrown to the ground.

Hearing the screams of her husband, Mrs. Schaller picked up a crowdbar and ran to the aid of Schaller who lay helpless under the animal.

She swung the bar against the bull's head once, after which he turned and ran. Schaller was taken to a West Plains hospital.

Members of the family said the three-year old bull had been considered "lame" until he charged the farmer.

Five Killed in a Scotland Train Fire

BEATTOCK, Scotland, June 9—(AP)—Fire broke out last night on a speeding Birmingham-Glasgow Express train killing a man, two women and two children. A search was made to determine if there were any other victims.

Fanned by the speed of the train the flames swept through the first three coaches. These were ablaze when the train ground to a halt near this village, 60 miles south-east of Glasgow.

Lanarkshire fire brigade headquarters said all three of the cars that caught fire were "burned out."

Hal Boyle COLUMN

By Hal Boyle
NEW YORK (AP)—"U.S. Senator urges building of television network abroad to offset Soviet propaganda and teach virtues of American Way."—News Item.

Let's suppose Uncle Sam does set up a free community television screen in 50 selected European towns. And let's suppose these screens show exactly the same programs as now flicker across Video sets here.

Within three months the White House might be bombarded by letters such as the following imaginary missive from Andre Noisetier, mayor of Lethargie, a village in Western France:

Dear President Truman:
Vive L'Amerique! Vive La France!

Never will we cease to remember the glorious days of our liberation when your troops drove Les Boches from our village. Merci Beaucoup also for the Marshall plan. You will be pleased to know that we now have the roofs back on most of our houses again.

But to get down to business: It is about the new television programs that I write you.

Since the television came, our little village is not the same. It is like the revolution. Sometimes I long for the war again. It was more peaceful here.

Yesterday a delegation of shopkeepers arrive at my office and say: "Smash the television screen!" I ask why.

"Because the women no longer will buy our goods," the leader says. "They say, 'Why should the women of France pay money for pots and pans and flour? In America the women get them for nothing. They go to the television. The master of ceremonies, he hug them and kisses them and give them anything they want.'"

What can I tell them? Nothing. Why? Because my wife—with-out the single word to me—she sends in the quiz question to one of your programs. And it is announced on the screen, there before the whole village that my wife wins the electric dishwasher.

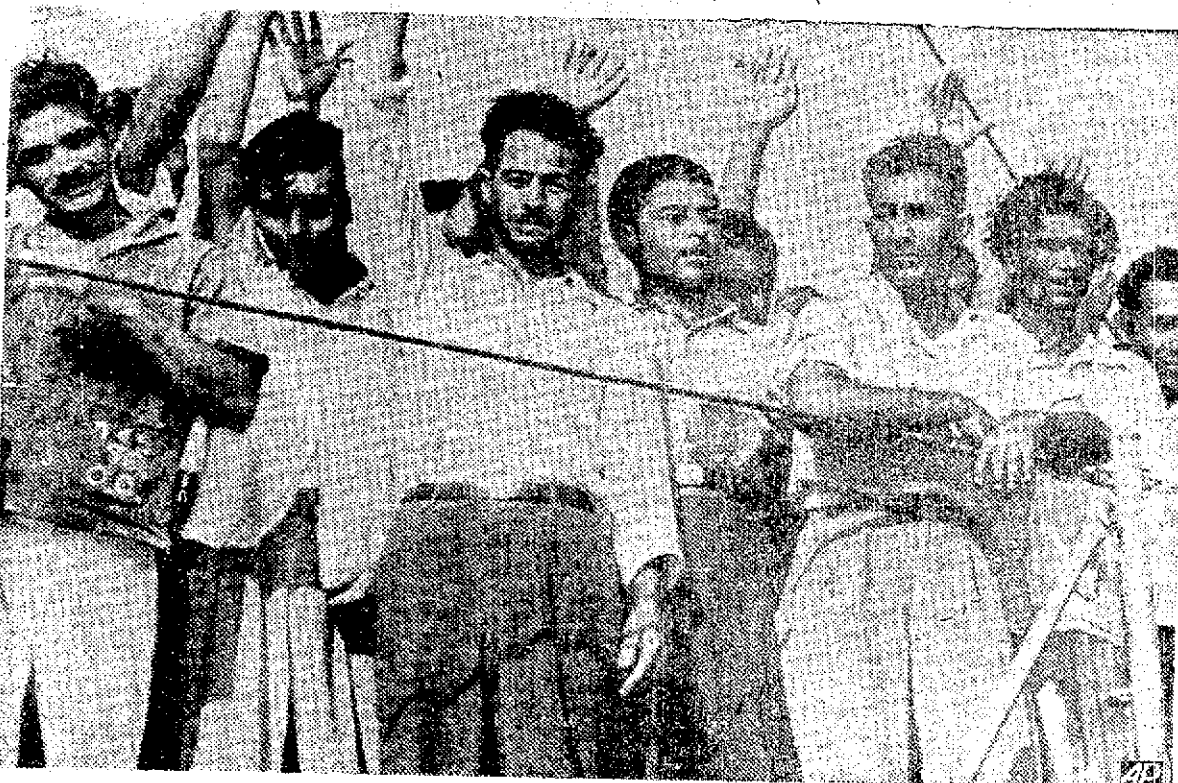

What does this mean? Well, we have one Communist in our village. He goes around and whispers: "The mayor's wife wins the dishwasher. Aha, I told you. It is an American plot to control the elections in Lethargie. Our mayor is in the pay of President Truman."

And the parents are vairy angry about what the television do to their children. They watch the cowboy programmes. Then they take the rope and go into the fields and pull the feet out from under the cows and tie them together. The cows they do not understand. What happen? They don't give the milk.

The other day in school the teacher tell the class about one of our great gallic heroes, Vercingetorix, who fight with Julius Caesar longtimes ago. One boy—yes, my son—say, "Navair mind Vercingetorix. What's new weeth Hopalong Cassidy?"

Please, Monsieur Truman, if you want to help Europe win the cold war, do me the favor. Take the television and sent it to Soviet Russia—S'il Vous Plait. I make

Dugan Paint Co. Sponsors Meeting

A meeting sponsored by the George E. Dugan Paint Co., was held at the Ambassador room of the Bothwell hotel at 8:00 o'clock Thursday night for some 80 independent paint contractors.

The program was presented by representatives of the Pratt and Lambert Paint Co., in Kansas City, who showed slides prepared by the scientific section of the Paint, Varnish and Laquer Association, the title of which was, "Condensation and Its Control." After these pictures were shown and explained one of the representatives led a discussion of the New Color calibrator, which is a scientific mechanism for creating harmonious color schemes. This new calibrator is now being put in use at the Dugan store.

The two representatives are: R. C. Snowden and L. M. Meidinger, both of the Kansas City branch. After the meeting a "Dutch Lunch" was served.

Truman to Campaign For James Roosevelt

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9—(AP)—President Truman probably will campaign against Gov. Earl Warren again—but this year in behalf of James Roosevelt, instead of for himself.

Roosevelt, son of the late FDR, won the Democratic nomination for governor in Tuesday's primary. He will run against Warren, Republican nominee asking a third term, in November.

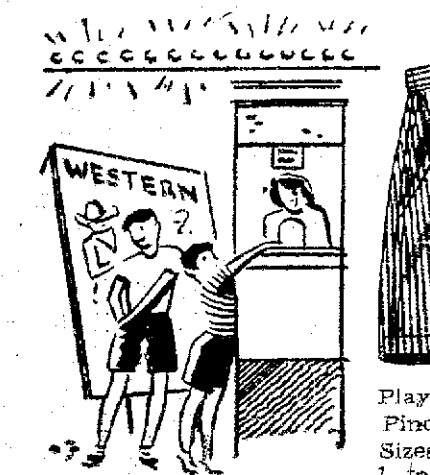

Two years ago, Truman defeated you the guarantee Russia weel nevair be the same again.

With assurance of my highest esteem,

Lilienthal Urges Freeing of Atom

WASHINGTON, June 9—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal urged America today to free the atom from what he called a "Soviet-type" government monopoly.

The former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission said this monopoly is stifling development of the atom for peaceful purposes. He said private industry should be given a chance to pioneer on this new frontier of undreamed of possibilities.

That would mean changing the atomic energy law. Lilienthal is for that. He also wants "an end to the absurd clock-and-dagger air of mystery that still hangs over this monopoly."

In the first of a series of articles in Collier's magazine, he complained that here is a crowning irony:

"As to the new era of the atom, we have not only turned our back on the essentials of the industrial system that has given us our military security, we have done it in the name of military security! In the midst of a desperate competi-

Conway Duncan Tells How Hadacol Helps Tired, Nervous Men

whose trouble is caused by deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂ Iron and Nicotin!

Mr. Conway Duncan, Rt. 2, Box 426, of Blytheville, Arkansas, is a very thoughtful man. And due to his ability to sit down and think things out carefully, he is a much happier man today. This is Mr. Duncan's experience in his own words:

"I was working in my field early this spring and I got tired, nervous, so I sat down to rest. I began thinking of the past and my ailments.

"I felt drowsy, sluggish, tired and was rather nervous most of the time. I didn't eat much as regular meals. My wife thought that she had lost her art in cooking.

"I got to thinking of HADACOL, then using it. So I went to our country grocery store and bought myself a bottle. The third morning I ate 3 biscuits for breakfast. When I went for my second bottle, there were several of my friends buying HADACOL too. I bought 2 bottles for some friends and told them if it didn't help them, it wouldn't cost them anything. A week later I saw them and they paid me my money.

"I would recommend HADACOL to anyone, regardless of age or ailment, who is suffering from such deficiencies.

Helps You Feel Wonderful! Don't you think you ought to start thinking too—especially if you've been suffering from neuritis aches and pains, indigestion, gas, heartburn, bloating, a nervous weakened run-down condition because you have such deficiencies?

Yes, if you are one of those people deficient in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Nicotin and keep putting off relieving the cause of your trouble—take HADACOL daily to make sure your system gets more than its daily needs of these vital elements. Let HADACOL start you on the road to feeling better within a few days' time. Know the joys of jumping out of bed mornings after a wonderful night's sleep—full of the joy of being alive. Know the thrill of feeling physically fit, full of vim and vigor. No matter who you are—banker, lawyer, merchant, farmer, factory worker, or tired—give this wonderful new HADACOL treatment a chance to help you feel like a million. Trial size bottle, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. *Photo by professional model. ©1950, The Leflore Corporation.

Drowning Victim Body Is Recovered

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 9—(AP)—The body of Joseph Shelby Salmon, 49, was recovered from Perche Creek south of Columbia late Thursday. Salmon, a railway worker, fell from a boat in the swollen creek last Saturday. His widow and 15 children survive.

An early experiment in photography consisted of reproducing crude silhouette shadows on chemically treated paper with the aid of the sun. That was in 1802.

With the Russian system, we have adopted a method that more nearly resembles the Russian system than it does our own."

The Law of Love

Charity, or love, is the law by which all men shall one day be judged. "A new commandment I give unto you," said Christ, "that you love one another as I have loved you. . . By this shall all men know that you are My disciples. . ."

Aristotle, the brilliant pagan philosopher, taught that some men were destined by nature to be slaves, to be exploited and despised. He could not see in the eyes of his neighbor the shadow of the Divine. It remained for Christ to propound the supreme doctrine of man's essential equality and the all-embracing law of mutual love and good will.

The love preached by Christ is not an easy virtue. Men are by nature selfish. All of us have instincts of cruelty. Our hearts are not always melted by the misery and sorrow of others. We are eternally concerned for our own happiness; we often need the proddings of conscience to take up the burdens of the oppressed.

Nevertheless, charity can be cultivated to a high degree in any of us. It may mean sacrifice, but it also brings rich dividends. That is easy enough to understand; for in meeting the obligations of charity, we follow a blessed and consoling path. In serving neighbor, we serve God and there is a rich joy in such dedication.

If there is contempt for others, it must be overcome by meditating on the value which Christ placed on even the lowliest of His creatures. If there is indifference, it must be melted by reflection on the interest shown by Christ in the daily problems of the humblest of those among whom He once lived.

Charity in its highest degree calls for spiritual imagination; the ability to see in every man a brother; in every need a personal challenge; in every cry of distress a voice calling up to service.

Beggars pass us in the streets. A child weeps over a lost mother. A worker, hungry and desperate, comes seeking opportunity and hope. A sick man lies fearful and lonely in his hospital bed. From all these comes a cry from Christ Himself. What we do for them, we do for the love and honor of the All-Merciful Savior; what we give will be remembered at judgment and will be repaid a hundredfold.

Salvation Comes Through Judgment
By William E. Gilroy, D. D.
Salvation through judgment is the dominant theme of the Prophet Zephaniah, who lived and prophesied more than 600 years before Christ.

It was in the reign of Josiah, King of Judah, and one should read the twenty-second and twenty-third chapters of II Kings to get the historical setting and the events of the time. Josiah was only eight years old when his father died and he began his reign. But in his eighteenth year a great reformation occurred upon the discovery in the Temple of the Book of the Law, probably portions of the Book of Deuteronomy.

Such a reformation, vividly described in II Kings 22, was long overdue, for the preceding reigns had been times of great wickedness, with flagrant idolatry, and the degradation and corruption of worship.

The times were pregnant with danger, and the fall of the kingdom, with the fall of the kingdom, with the exile of the people to Babylon, was not far off. The little land of Palestine was caught, as it has often been, between great warring empires and Josiah, himself, was to fall in battle, when he became involved against Egypt.

It was a time of opportunity, as well as of peril, for prophets. If they spoke words of truth and warning, if they pointed at the evils and weaknesses of what was ostensibly a time of prosperity, they were subject to the charge that they were pessimists and disloyal to their nation.

Even today, in our modern democracies, people don't like to hear anything but the favorable words. Yet it is not the strength, but the weakness, of our modern societies, that should be our concern, if we wish to safeguard our future.

What would one think of a physician if, instead of facing and treating some diseased part of the body, he went into raptures over how sound and healthy the rest of it was? The prophets were spiritually-minded social physicians, and that is why they dwell so much upon the evils and injustices of their time.

But their purpose was salvation. Zephaniah, like his greater contemporary, Jeremiah, saw in the events of the time the judgments of God.

Salvation came through judgment, but not perhaps precisely as the prophet foresaw it; for it was only through defeat, disaster, and exile that that spiritual regeneration was to come.

California Tries New Grasses
DAVIS, Calif. (AP)—More than 500 kinds of range grasses have been imported to California during the past five years, reports the University's College of Agriculture. They came from various areas of the United States as well as from foreign countries throughout the world.

In adaptation trials, the new grasses are planted in various counties to see where they will do well and produce better range feed.

Wild First Inning But Cards Win

Three Braves Hurt; Starting Pitchers Kayoed in First

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—(AP)—The patched-up St. Louis Cardinals scored eight runs in the first inning last night, went on to beat the Boston Braves 18-6 moving them again into a first place National League tie with Brooklyn. Each team collected 17 hits.

Three Braves were injured and were forced to leave the game. Bob Elliott and Del Crendall pulled leg muscles and Pete Reiser suffered a groin injury.

Both starting pitchers, Harry Beechen and Johnny Sain, were kayoed in a wild 43-minute first inning. The Braves poured four runs over on five hits in their half. The Cards put the game on ice in their half with two out and no one on. There was a walk, three straight singles, another walk, two more singles and then a pair of doubles.

Boston used 19 men in the ball game. With a comfortable lead, the Cardinals piled on three more tallies in the third and three more in the fourth.

In the fifth Boston came back with a run on Tommy Holmes' double and a single by Walker Cooper and scored another marker in the sixth.

But the Redbirds exploded again in their half of the sixth for four clunkers.

The story of the game was that the Cardinals hit when it counted. They strangled nine men compared with 12 for Boston.

Extent of the three Braves' injuries was not immediately learned. Boston 400 011 000—6 17 3 St. Louis 803 304 000—18 17 1 Sain, Johnson (1), Antonelli (4), Donovan (6) and Cooper, Crenshaw (5); Beechen, Martin (1) and Rice. WP—Martin. LP—Sain.

An Upset in Women's Trans-Miss. Tourney

DALLAS, Tex., June 9.—(AP)—Mary Ann Villegas, a pretty New Orleans teen-ager, upset veteran Betty Mackinnon Thursday to enter quarter-finals of the Women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Putting in sensational fashion, the colorfully dressed 17-year-old ousted her tournament-wise opponent, 1 up. She will meet Beverly Hanson, Ingle, Calif., in the quarter-finals.

Miss Hanson, defending champion Betsy Rawls, Austin, Tex., medalist Polly Riley, Fort Worth, Tex., Marjorie Lindsey, Decatur, Ill., Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, Ore., Miss Frank Goldwaters, Fort Worth, Tex., and another teen-ager, Betty Dodd of San Antonio, Tex., also advanced.

Miss Riley, twice a trans-Miss champion, smashed young Pat Gardner of Midland, Tex., 5 and 4.

B-J Game Scheduled For Tonight, Postponed

The Chiefs will play their next game Sunday night at Liberty park against Boonville.

Negroes to Play With The Sooners

NORMAN, Okla., June 9.—(AP)—Athletic Director Bud Wilkinson said yesterday the door was open to Negro athletes to play for University of Oklahoma teams.

His stand drew immediate praise from two member schools of the Big Seven athletic conference.

Under Anti-Segregation Rule
Wilkinson declared if Negro undergraduates enroll in school under the new anti-segregation ruling of the U. S. supreme court, they will be allowed to go out for sports just like any other student.

Athletic Director Henry P. Iba of Oklahoma A & M College said he hasn't kept up with the situation there and doesn't know how the anti-segregation ruling will affect the Aggies.

He added: "I guess it will be up to the regents to decide."

A Negro never has played on an Oklahoma athletic team. The state provided separate schools of higher education and barred Negro enrollment until recent supreme court rulings.

Praised Wilkinson
Officials at the University of Kansas and Kansas State College praised Wilkinson's announcement.

Kansas Chancellor Deane W. Mallott said the new athletic policy at the University of Oklahoma in the eligibility of Negroes for intercollegiate athletics appeared to conform entirely to the policy already in effect at Kansas. He said it should give further opportunity for able Negro athletes in the conference.

Expect Riggs-Kramer To Reach Semi-Finals

CLEVELAND, June 9.—(AP)—Battling upsets, defending champion Bobby Riggs and 1946 champion Jack Kramer should win their way to the national professional tennis tournament semi-finals today.

Randy Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., No. 4 pro, and Francisco (Pancho) Segura, Ecuadorian bantamweight already are in the semi-final bracket after easy victories last night.

Segura battled Werby Van Horn of Philadelphia, fourth ranking pro, 6-0, 6-2, 6-2.

Kovacs eliminated Frankie Parker of Milwaukee 6-0, 6-0, 6-1.

Riggs will bump into Kovacs in the semi-finals tomorrow if he beats Jack March of Cleveland this afternoon.

Michigan Pre-Meet Favorite in Track

MILWAUKEE, June 9.—(AP)—A tight tussle for the team trophy is in prospect tomorrow night at the silver anniversary running of the Cental College all conference track meet in Marquette stadium.

Michigan State's defending champions have been installed as slight pre-meet favorites chiefly on their balance Wisconsin, Oklahoma A & M and Notre Dame are pegged as the leading challengers.

Titlists Meet In Missouri Golf Tourney

By Skipper Patrick

KANSAS CITY, June 9.—(AP)—The defending champion and two former titlists were among the eight quarter-finalists in the running for the Missouri State Amateur golf championship today.

A couple of St. Louis swingers, defending champion Jack Geiss and Jimmy Jackson Kansas City's Bobby Willis and Warren Riepen of St. Joseph both one-time champions, appeared to have the better chances of showing up for Saturday's 36-hole finals.

Riepen trimmed Bob Leaton of Kansas City, 1 up, then eliminated former champion Glen Oahman of Kansas City 5 and 3. Harry Pauley of St. Louis and Ray Watson, of Kansas City, made up the other top bracket quarter-finals. Pauley won a pair of twenty-hole matches yesterday in beating Jim Patton of Columbia and Tom Lawrence of Kansas City.

Willie, a semi-finalist in the National Amateur several years ago and a host club member, is one of the prime favorites because of his knowledge of the windy course. He was about par yesterday in beating Di Neil Callahan, Kansas City, 7 and 5, and Bob Kosten former Detroit professional now in Kansas City, 3 and 2.

Unheard of Lee Mackey, Jr. Shoots a 64

ARDMORE, Pa., June 9.—(AP)—A 26-year-old Birmingham pro with a crew haircut, a beat-up bag of clubs and no job to his name today shot out one of the most amazing rounds of golf in the history of the old Scottish game.

Six Under Par
Unheard of Lee Mackey Jr. shot an almost unbelievable 64—six strokes under par for the double-tough Merion course—o shattered every record for a single round in 50 U. S. Open championships and atop a three-stroke lead at the outset of the 1950 classic.

Piracy in Straits
PENANG—(AP)—Pirates in the Straits of Malacca struck for the second time this year when they stripped a junk of a $5,000 rubber cargo 30 miles southwest of Penang. The junk was on its way from Indonesia.

The last piracy took place in January 30 when a sailing junk was stripped of rubber and quinine valued at $660.
